Article 23. At the meeting of the Board of Directors, a quorum is constituted when at least ten members are present. If the quorum of the meeting is not made in any meeting after the appointment time has passed for half an hour or during the meeting of the board of directors due to the number of the directors as required above, the meeting shall be postponed for at least 7 (seven) working days.

If the chairman is absent in the meeting or is unable to perform his duty, the vice chairman, if any, is required to chair the meeting. If there is no vice chairman or there is a vice chairman but he is unable to perform the duty, the directors attending the meeting are required to elect any director to chair the meeting.

The decision of the meeting is made by the majority vote.

Each director has one vote unless the director who has a conflict of interest in the matter is not allowed to cast a vote on such issue. If the vote is on par, the chairman in the meeting is eligible to cast another vote to become a decisive vote.

Article 24. Meetings of the board of directors shall be summoned by the chairman of the board of directors. To call for the meeting of the board of directors, the chairman or the assigned person shall send an invitation notice to the directors at least three days in advance of the meeting date. However, in case of urgency for the purpose of protecting the rights and the interests of the company, the notice to summon the meeting of the board of directors may be made by electronic means or by other methods and earlier meeting date may be fixed.

Where there is a reasonable cause or for the protection of the company's rights and interests, at least two directors may jointly request that the chairman summon a meeting of the board of directors, provided that matters to be considered in the meeting and the reasons thereof must be notified to the chairman along with such request. The chairman shall summon and fix the date of the meeting within fourteen days from the date of receiving such request. In case the chairman fails to do the aforementioned, directors who have made such request may jointly summon and fix the date of the meeting within fourteen days after the expiration of the requested period.

If there is no chairman of the board of directors for any reason, the vice-chairman shall summon the meeting of the board of directors. In the case there is no vice-chairman for any reason, at least two directors may jointly summon the meeting.

Article 25. If the directorship is vacant until the quorum of the meeting is not possible, the existing directors are only allowed to undertake the duty on calling for the meeting of shareholders to elect the directors to fill in all vacancies. The election of the directors by such meeting of shareholders is required to comply with the criteria and method indicated in Article 15 of the Articles.
