7. Unethical action of non-compliances to relevant professional standards.

POLICY VIOLATIONS

1. The member of management and employees who fail to comply with this Code of Ethics, including supervisors who ignore misconduct or are aware of misconduct but fail to deal with it, will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. Ignorance of this Code of Ethics and/or local laws is not an excuse for failure to comply.
2. The member of the Board of Directors who fails to comply with this Code of Ethics will be subject to Board's consideration and including termination of directorship. Ignorance of this Policy and/or local laws is not an excuse for failure to comply.

This Code of Ethics cannot possibly cover all potential situations due to constant changes in the industry, prevailing laws and ethical standards. Where employees encounter problems that have not been specifically addressed in this Code of Ethics, they are encouraged to consult with their immediate supervisor on the appropriate ethical approach to be pursued.

When in doubt over the ethical nature of certain actions, employees should also consider if they would continue such actions if they knew these actions would be made known to the public.

Finally, to ensure that this Code of Ethics continues to meet the requirements of the Tipco Asphalt Group, it shall be subjected to revision every three years (or sooner, as specific circumstances may dictate).

Hence, to manifest a confidence in assuring compliance to this Code of Ethics, members of Board of Directors, and employees shall sign a Declaration of Compliance or acknowledge through internal on-line system to the Code of Ethics every year. The signing of this declaration is to ensure the management, investors, and all stakeholders of the Company's business ethics.
